Re: United States v. Jordan Meadow, No. 23 Cr. 313 (ALC)

Dear Judge Carter:

On behalf of defendant Jordan Meadow in the above-referenced case, I write to respectfully request a 30-day extension of time within which to file any pre-trial motions. My notes reflect that, at a conference held on November 14, 2023, the Court ordered that any such motions be filed by February 24, 2024,<sup>1</sup> that the government respond by March 29, 2024, and that a reply be filed by April 12, 2024. The reason for the requested extension is to afford the parties more time to continue discussions about pretrial disposition. The government consents to this request.

Accordingly, the defense respectfully requests that motions, if any, be filed by March 22, 2024, opposition be filed by April 29, 2024, and reply by May 13, 2024.

Respectfully submitted,

Tai H. Park
